The Split in the Liberal Party Complete-Gladstone

End of the Strike at Oldham-Negotiations fat Manchester-Important Meeting of Delegates.

The Trouble in the Balkans -- Progress Made in the Direction of a Settlement of Affairs.

> England. SPLIT IN THE LIBERAL CAMP.

LONDON, October 18 .- The split in the liberal camp is complete. Gladstone threatens to resign and the party is hopelessly divided on leadership. The advanced Radical wing and the non-con formist clique, led by Morley, and Morley's paper, the Daily News, are united to a man on Chamberlain; and the Church party, the Whigs and the Moderates are equally sincerelin their devotion to Hartington. The Marquis has invariably acted as de facto Prime Minister during Gladstone's temporary inability to perform the duties of office, and in that capacity has satisfied all sections of the party except the extremists. (Chamberlain is distasteful to leading Liberals, outside his own particular circle, and must prove himself a stronger than he has yet done before he can expect to be called to the head of affairs. Gladstone's threat to resign may have the effect of bringing Hartington and Chamberlain together on an outwardly friendly fo otagree to sink their differences and can cel their aversion for each other Glad-stone will assuredly go out of politics and the Liberal organization crumble to pieces with Chamberlain eventually at the head of one division and Hartingtor at the head of the other. A combination of Radicals and Conservative Demo crats on one hand, and Whigs and moderate revolutionary process at work. SALISBURY'S LIBERALITY. Lord Salisbury is being strongly pressed to take cognizance of Mr. John Dilton's revolutionary speech, in which he warned landlords that they must sell their lands at a nominal price or fight their lands at a nominal price or fight. The Marquis so far turns a deaf ear to the appeal. He regards what he calls "national flights," as a capital safety valve. "Shut up such men as John Dillon by force," he says, "and you causs tru times the outery. Dillon is an enthusiast. He is as honest as the day. Exercone respects him for the purity of Everyone respects him for the purity of notives and the depth of his patriot Its says what he believes and say ing it pleases him and gives him some-thing concenial to think about and does no one any harm? To the objection that such speeches are incendiary and dangerous, his lordship says: "The crowds that go to hear Dillon and Healy and other vigorous orators, go with the determination to get something stimulating, and they get it and go away satisfield. Nothing the speakers are able to say can possibly rouse them to a higher pitch of entbusiasm. Irishmen have plenty of cause for dissatisfaction, and the more they are allowed to give it vent, the sooner we shall know all about it and how to apply remedies."

This is the ground Lord Salisbury has repeatedly taken with representative men of his party who are lending their induence to the landlords in the new controverand property are different from words, and will be severely dealt with. It is hoped that the mill owners will meet this concession of the weeks. The decision affects over 700,000 apind'es and 26,000 operatives. The stake was occasioned by the owners posting a notice for a ten per cent, reduction in wages. A meeting of delegates of the various interes' assecutions throughout Great Britain was held here yesterday. A resolution was adopted approving the demand of the miners for an advance of fifthen per cent, on the present rate of wages, but it was decided to take a ballot of the whole of the operatives on the question before ordering a general strike. The delogates represented 109,000 men. The Oldham strike is ended and 2,000 operatives have resumed work. A comnumise was effected on the basis of a five per cent, reduction of wages instead of a ten per cent, reduction which the masters demanded.

Three Trains on the Lehigh Valley Contribute to a Huge Mass of Wreckage,

And Cause the Death and Serious Wounding of Several Passengers -- The Killed and Wounded.

NEW YORK, October 18 - A disastrous accident occurred last night on the Penusylvania Railroad just west of the Hackensack Bridge. An emigrant train, which left Jersey City at 7-45 o'clock, was run into by the Southern Express train, which left the station at 9:05, knocking four cars of the latter across the track of the Lebigh Valley Road. Shortly afterwards a Lehigh Valley train, eastward bound, came thundering along and dashed into the wreck. The wreck is the most frightful one on the road in years. Four persons are known to be killed and turco wounded, but it is believed that there are other dead bodies under the debris. Information of the accident was telegraphed to Jersey City, and several physicians were summoned and sent to the wreck. The bodies of two women a boy and a man were recovered. The man and one of the women were decapitated. Their names could not be ascertained. All the killed and wounded except one were on the emigrant train.

THE WOUNDED AND KILLED Among the killed, and wounded were: Enlina Arneus, Norwegian, aged thirty-five years; Mariaus Kilager, Norwegian, aged eighteen; Christinas Rolsted, Norwegian, thirty years of age.
Stuart Bowers, fireman of the Lehigh Valley train, ared thirty years grant trase, right arm broken. An unknown Norwegian woman and only; the woman is bully hurtabout the head and body; the caby has both legs an I one arm broken.

Owen Halle, englurer of the Lehigh Valley train, was taken to Newark. The extent of his injuries has not been learned. As far as leatned none of the passeagers on the Western Express were seriously injured. The pas-sengers on the Lehigh Val-ley train were brought to Jerley train were brought to Jer-sey City on a relief train sent to the scene. At midnight the fog was still prevailing on the meadows, and it is feared others will be found beneath the debris. The full extent of the disaster will not be known until morning.

A Serious Railroad Smash-Up. KANSAS CITY, Mo., October 18 .- A rather serious rallroad accident occurred on the other side of the Hannibal Bridge yesterday morning. A Rock Island passenger train stopped at the Harlem Depot for orders. Its stopping caused a Hannibal freight engine with a caboose to stop near the first overhead bridge across the river. In a few minthe Wabash passenger crossed the bridge, and falling to observe the distance signals dashed into the Hannibal freight engine and caboose. The tender of the first engine was driven into the cabouse about half its length The force of the collision smashed the cuboose, derailed it and the engine, knocked off the Wagine, knocked off the Wa-bash engine's smokestack, and wrecked it generally. We one was seriously hurt, though several received slight injuries. Among a large number of passengers on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific pasthe Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific passenger train delayed by the wreck were Mrs. James G. Biaine, her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Coppinger, and the latter's child. They were out their way to Kansas, and early in the morning crossed the bridge to make proper connections. Although somewhat discomfited by this delay, Mrs. Blaine took the matter very composedly.

Baptist Preacher.

MEMPHIS, TRNN., October 19.-On the 3d of last August a mob of masked negroes went to the residence of Rev. R. N.

Countee, on Deans avenue, and attempted to kill him. They fired into his resldence, and the parson, becoming slarmed, fled out of the back door in his night clothes. He ran at such lightning speed that none of the mob could eatch bim, and a parting voiley was discharged at the white specter as it disappeared unthe white specter as it disappeared underneath a high bridge which spans the bayou near his dwelling. The trouble at that time was due to the announcement that the colored minister had made in church, that on the following Sunday he would divulge the secrets of the Masons, the Odd Fellows and Immaculates, colored societies of which he was a mem-ber, but renounced his obligations as such. Fearing for his life if he attempted such an act. Countee published a card in the papers here declaring he would keep inviolate his obligations so far as secrecy was concerned, which for the time being seemed to satisfy the members of the organizations named.

Last night, however, another attempt was made to assassinate Countee. The was made to assassantile Country. The was returning to his home from church, with about twenty of his congregation, when he was fired upon by, unknown parties. The weapon used was a shotgun, and Countee was struck with two-One entered the back of his buckshot. head and another through his chin. Neither of the wounds is daugerous. His brother, S. L. Countee, who is a school teacher, was shot in the back and through his mouth. The bullet in his back may prove mortal. Ellen Wright, a colored sister, who was one of the crowd, was anot in the hip. The assassin fled after attempting to fire the other barrel of his shotgun, but, fortunately for the colored divine, the cap snapped, and the gun was found shortly afterward with only one barrel discharged. Fatally Stabbed By a Wife-Beater. Arlanta, Gu., October 9 .- Frank OglesbA a well-knowa citizen, was morally wounded late last night by Anderson Rush, an employe of the Tennessee Road. Resh arrived home drunk, and began abusing his wife. While the quarrel was in progress. Oglesby passed by, Rush happened to see Oglesby looking toward the house, and advancing to the door yelled out: "What in the — are you watching out there?" Oglesby started to move away, but as he walked off looked back over his shoulder. This angered Rush, and springing out of the door he ran toward the yard-gate, at the same time crying: "I'll show you, you, how to envesdrop." As Rush advanced he drew a knife from his pocket and onened the large blade. Oglesby saw Rush coming. He heard Rush's threat as he ran toward the gate, and fearing that he would be hurt, he stepped into the street and picking up two large stones, said: "Stop, or I'll hurt you" Rush continued to advance, all the while threatening to cut Oglesby to pieces. Osleaby stood still until Rush was within three feet of him, when he threw one of the stones. Rush dodged it and continued to advance. Oglesby threw the second stone, which struck Rush on the shoulder, but Rush did not even balt. Being unarmed, Oglesby wheeled around to run, but he was too slow, for just at that instant Rush drove the knife blade into the back of his neck. As Rush struck the lick he grabbed Oglesby by the shoulder, and quickly drawing the kaife out struck again. Oglesby all this time was trying strike the third blow. As soon as Ogleaby strike the third blow. As soon as Oglesby found himself free from his assailant's grasp be started to run. He ran about two blocks and dropped exhausted from loss of blood. He was carried to his home; and a physician summoned. Dr. Benson examined the wounds. One is four inches deep, and is near the base of the supposes to be a ten-bushel car, but when the consumer purchases the the skull. Rush escaped. Oglesby is The President Got, His Eye Teeth Cut.

ELMIRA, N. Y., October 18.-About eight miles south of Penn Yan, in the town of Barrington, Yates County, is a well-to-do farmer named Joshua Rapalyea. Several days ago two well-dressed, yea. Several days ago two well-dressed, westity appearing men called on Rapatvea, stating that they were going to build a large wooten-mill on Kenka Lake, Penn Yan, they being practical men and the company being of a joint-stock character, and the advantages of the mill were so great that it would be of benefit to any parson taking stock in at. They stared person taking stock in it. They stated that Rapalyea was pointed out to them as a man of means, of good executive ability, and if he would furnish $2,500, the amount lacking to place the enterprise on a paying basis, he would be made President of the company and the ducats would flow in like a spring freshet. He declined to take stock in the company, but after niuch persuasion and a goo deal more "taffy" he went to the Dunde Rational Bank, drew $2,000, and adding $500, which he had in his house, gave it to the men, taking a certificate of stock signed by the swindlers.

Rapalyea became so delighted with the title "President" of a great concern that he could not keep the secret to himself he could not keep the secret to himself, and jesterday, after waiting in vain for the promised return of his mill partners, disclosed the segret to intimate friends who, after suvestigation, found that Me Rapalyca was a victim of swindlers. The certificate field by Mr. Rapalyea bore the names of well-known capitalists of New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and elsewhere, but it is almost certain that all of them are forgeries. The swindlers took a train for the West, and detectives are on their track.

There was a party at Land's house, and Tom Varnell, an intimate friend, was present among the other guests. As the night wore on Land missed his daughter and wore on Land missed his daughter and Varnell. Suspecting some illicit conduct, he went into the yard to look for them. He then disappeared, and large rewards were offered for his apprehension, but not with standing he could he heard of notwithstanding he could be heard of often in the neighborhood and was par ticularly bold and during, yet such was his advoitness that the officers could not put their hands on him. The officers of Waco have had many jaunts after Tom Varnell, but only had their labor for their pains. Tom Varnell belongs to a good family, and while he was a wild rollicking blade, there was nothing mean or vicious about him, and the killing of old man Land seems to have been a rev-elation even to himself. The officers of the steamer were overpowered and their boat loaded to the water's edge. On this account they were afraid to make the trip, and announced that the exhibi-tion would be given before the wharf. This announcement led to a riot, during which the roughs, with axes and other implements, almost cut up the excursion barges Edna and Alice, and compelled the officers to jump into the river to save their lives, because they would not refund the money taken for tickets. A large force of policemen was ordered to the wharf, but order was not restored for a long time. The ringleaders were arrested. Only one man was slightly in-

END OF A STRIKE.

After Five Weeks' Idleness, the St Johns Mines; Resume Operations. Duquorn, ILL., October 19 .- The longest and by far the largest strike that has ever occurred in this (Perry) county is at last ended. The St. Johns Company at noon Saturday posted the following

M. C. WRIGHT, Superintendent. Thus granting the raise asked for by the miners. On the first day of Septem ber a meeting was held by a large num ber of the miners here, and it was decided to call a general miners' mass-meetin on the 2d of that month, at which meet ing it was decided that unless the variou operators in this vicinity would grant raise of two and a half cents per car ther would be a general strike, and they (the operators) were given until the 15th is which to decide. On the 12th the St. Johns Company gave notice that all works would be shut down and those that brought their tools out would be paid. At the largest mass-meeting of the kind ever held anywhere near here a gen eral strike was ordered, to go into effect the 15th of September at which date every miner in this prairie was idic and not a lump of coal was dug by any of the strikers until t e 16th of the present month, and now, after fiv: weeks of en tire idleness, every mine around here is running to its full capacity. The loss to the operators has been thousands of dollars. While some of the men have greaty needed money and work, every man beld to his word and promise and struck not a lick till the general order was given from the operators that their demands were granted. A close investigation reveals the following facts: The miners received two cents per bushel for about three-diffus of the coal dug, the remaining two fifths produced being nut, pea and slack coal, for which the miners received not a cent for digging. In other places in the State six same car of coal he must pay for twelve and one-half bushels; at another mine the men fill cars that are known to conthe men til cars that are known to con-tain eighteen bushels, but they only re-ceive pay for ten bushels. The coal here has never been weighed by a sworn weighman, as the law provides. The screens at some of the mines are so defective as to cause some of the miners t lose from one to ten cars per month The operators lose not a pound of cont.

The nut and pea coal is used extensively by nearly all our citizens. The stack coal is used for fuel at the various factories, mills, etc., here, and is sold to the consumer at so much a wagon-load or bushel; yet the miners do not receive a cent for digging the nut or slack coal. The cars as they are brought from the mines are dumped into the screens with sufficient force to crush the lumps into pieces small enough to go through the screens, and making slack and nut coal, thereby causing the men to lose very largely by not having properly constructed screens, and the lawful weighman to attend to the car on its arrival from the mines. As Mr. Robert Winning, the Mine Inspector for this District, has lately been here, the neces sary changes will presumably be made.

A Dreadful Experience At the home of Mr. Willis Johnson near Steven's Creek, on Friday last, Master Stoker, aged four years, grand-sou of right leg below the knee, while on his Mr. Johnson, was in the yard playing among the bee hives. The little fellow got too near a hive which rested upon a loose board, stepping upon the board the hive was shaken and the bees displunging about, and suddenly jumped turbed. They came out of the opening and gathered about the feet of the little chap in large numbers. They crawled up his leg beneath his clothing and stung him unmercifully They got under his waist, on his breast and back, and scores crawled up through the neck band on his face and in his hair. The agony of the little fellow was terrible, and his screams were heart-rending. He was cared for over his office He will probably be out by the family, his body stripped of cloth on crutches within two weeks. The Doc- ing and the stinging bees brushed away as quickly as possible. He was dreadthe enforced confinement. The accident fully sick on Saturday, but it is now thought that he will recover

MAN'S NEED OF FORGIVENESS. Synopsis of Rev. Dr. Vosburgh's Sermon at the Baptist Church

Sunday Night.

Dr. Vosburgh preached the sixth sermon in series at the Baptist church last evening. In spite of the storm, there was good congregation present. His theme was Grace, the text, Titus 2 11 He said that, by virtue of the sins and sorrows of life and death man stood in need of a divine remed He then considered the numan remedies tha have been applied by man, first or last, hope of a cure Upon these he dwelt at length They were as follows Nature, culture, a the will, trying to make reparation for our solves, and coremonial religion. These have all failed, and only the free eternal love and pardoning grace of God can cleanse and sav the soul, giving it eternal peace and the hop of a blessed hereafter He then showed that if man had not fallen he would need Grace b develop the possibilities of his being. Our i tellectual endowments are the gift of God He of His free Grace, deposits in the mind o a Goethe the poetle echo of the world of Na ure in that of Schiller, a longing after th world of the ideal In every soul he has de posited some echo of his rich world As sinners, much more do we need th

No house could and without it Unforgiven sins are a bar Uruce that restores feilowship and love. Much more have we need of forgiveness with respect to God against whom we hourly sin Sin as a wall of separation between us and God Forgiveness removes it, and draws us near to Him. He then showed how ridiculous it was to say that to ask pardon of God was It we would be rewarded accord ing to our merits we shall have nothing to to elve, and less than nothing We need pardon Which is the more bonor in a man to own a ault or to deny it? It he confesses it and asks pardon, do we not look upon him as mor ally cleansed and renew in good faith our fel lowship with him — It he denies it does be not mwar liy repell us and widen the gulf betweet us It the le so as between man and man n w mulob p c re so is it between ourselves and

The great St. Louis Exposition has now been open over a month, and it has been an unqualified and unprecedented success. Visitors from all parts of the Union pronounce it the grandest exhibition of the kind ever opened. Nearly built a million people have passed through the doors up to this time exclusive of exhibitors and dead heads, and it will not close until Oct. 24. The megnificent desplay of art, setonce, machiberty and the trades, the grand illumination by all kinds of electric lights, the maniforth Music Hail, the soul-stirring music of dillume's world famous band, the redes of the Greefoy Arctic Expedition, together with the thousand and one other splendid features, form a colossal collection of all that can attract, instruct, astonich and amuse.

All who have not yet been to St. Louis should take advantage of the wonderfully choop excursions next fureday. Oct. 21, over the Wabash line. Rates will be reduced to the lowest figures over offered, and takes awill be allowed two entire days from date of starting to see the Exposition and return home. We carriedly advise all our readers to call on the hearest Wabash size it, learn the rates huy tickets, and so, It is the opportunity of a filetime.
